Description

Description:	The most famous and most photogenic tourist town on the Istrian peninsula - Rovinj, has long been known for its excellent climatic characteristics that have a beneficial effect on our health. Once a small fishing village, today it is adorned with the title of the most developed tourist destination in Croatia. Not far from the town of Rovinj, there is another typical Istrian place with narrow colorful streets, stone houses with a special atmosphere where the typical mild Mediterranean climate prevails. Precisely on such a location is located a beautiful spacious property with a total area of 21 000m² on which there are two ground floor houses with a total living area of 117m². Both ground floor houses have a kitchen with living room and dining room which offers access to a covered terrace and beach pool of 58m², bedroom and bathroom. If you are looking for hidden and secluded places to escape, this magical property with its own fenced garden has everything you need to enjoy the hidden beauties of the Istrian peninsula and the Mediterranean way of life. This real small-big paradise is a great investment that guarantees a safe, stable and fast return on investment.
