Description

Description:	ISTRIA, PULA - Apartment with tavern in the city center! A rarity on the market! Pula is the largest city of the Istrian County, located in the southwestern area of the impressive landscape of the Istrian peninsula, and is characterized by an interesting cultural and historical heritage, beautiful nature and long beaches that take your breath away. The city developed partly under and partly on seven hills: Monte Zaro, Monte Serpente, Monte Ghiro, Monte Magno, Monte Paradiso, Monte Rizzi and Monte Vidal. A moderately warm climate with mild winters and warm summers prevails, so it is an ideal place for potential property owners who will be able to enjoy them all year round. This interesting apartment is located right in the center of the city, which is spread over two floors. The property is located on the high ground floor and has a total living area of 110 m². The first floor is the upper part of the apartment, which consists of a hallway, a storage room, two bedrooms, a spacious living room, a kitchen, a dining room and a bathroom. While the second floor is located below the apartment and consists of a tavern that gives the apartment a special charm and offers additional space for staying and socializing with family and friends. An interesting part of the property is the communication between the rooms and the internal staircase that leads to the tavern. There is also an additional entrance from the main road where the entrance to the building is. In addition to the above, future owners are provided with free use of the common yard inside the building. The apartment is located near all city facilities and it is not necessary to walk more than two minutes to a store, bank, post office, school, market... It was also completely renovated in 2020 and no additional investments are required, which makes this property a great opportunity for family life or rental for tourist purposes.
